

Chinese language Educational Travel

CHINA

China is more than a country – it is a whole different world, from shop-till-you-drop metropolises to the epic grasslands of Inner Mongolia, with deserts, sacred peaks, astounding caves, and imperial ruins in between. Along with the stark contrasts comes stark beauty; there is plenty to see if you can wade through the crowds.

In Beijing, Shanghai and Xi'an we can arrange school hosting for your group for one or two weeks staying in 3 – 4 star hotels. Students attend all classes and most of the time have the option of eating lunch at the school or back at their hotel since most schools are boarding schools the students are given 1.5 – 2 hours for lunch.

Beijing

An ancient capital of six dynasties, Beijing is one of the most famous historical and cultural cities in the world. Temples, parks, and historic sites all sing wonderfully and powerfully of the dream that was Old Cathay, but in the same hallowed space there's a new Beijing taking shape. Just outside the exquisite walls of Beijing's monuments, steel and concrete are steadily replacing silk and carved wood.

Shanghai

While it can't match the epic history of Beijing or Xi'an's grander sights, Shanghai is the hotspot of modern China; a cosmopolitan city buzzing with the concept of 'lifestyle revolution', showcased in the architectural temples of art, fine dining and contemporary urban living on the Bund.

Xi'an

With so much history, there is a lot to do in Xian and the surrounding Shaanxi County, indeed several weeks could be spent absorbing everything. However, two to four days are usually enough for most groups to sample what the city has to offer, with many treating Xian as a side trip when visiting the capital, Beijing.